Connected

I'm drawn in by a
powerful pull to the globe that large globe intersected by broad black meridians
an illusion of a whole but apart.

Continents patches
float disconnected
held together in black
space
benign by the choice of colour light greens soft non confrontational
inhabited by a pretty
dragonfly.

But on closer scrutiny many more tiny living things shouting peace on earth
from within.
